II. Accounting Period and Currency Used:

- Accounting Period: From January 1 to December 31 of the calendar year.
- Currency Used: Vietnamese Dong (VND).

III. Accounting Standards and Regime Applied:

1. Accounting Regime Applied: The accounting regime of the Vietnam National Coal and Mineral Industries Holding Corporation Limited, as approved by the Ministry of Finance.
2. Statement of Compliance with Accounting Standards and Regime: The financial statements are prepared and presented in compliance with the Vietnamese Accounting Standards (VAS) and the applicable accounting regime.
Form of accounting book application: General Journal.

IV. Accounting Policies Applied.

1. Types of Exchange Rates Applied in Accounting:
 - Cash deposits, cash on hand, and receivables from entities outside of VINACOMIN denominated in foreign currencies are converted into Vietnamese Dong using the buying exchange rate of the bank.
2. Principles for the recognition of cash and cash equivalents: Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, bank deposits, cash in transit, and short-term investments with a recovery or maturity period not exceeding 3 months from the date of purchase and that are readily convertible to cash.

Transactions denominated in currencies other than Vietnamese Dong are converted into Vietnamese Dong at the actual exchange rate prevailing at the time of the transaction.

The balances of cash and cash equivalents denominated in foreign currencies at the end of the financial year are converted into Vietnamese Dong based on the exchange rates announced by the Vietnam National Coal - Mineral Industries Holding Corporation Limited (VINACOMIN). Any exchange rate differences arising from the revaluation of foreign currency balances at the end of the period are recognized as financial income or financial expenses in the accounting period.

3. Principles for inventory recognition:

Inventories are recognized at the lower of historical cost and net realizable value (NRV).

The historical cost of inventories includes purchase costs, conversion costs, and other directly attributable costs incurred to bring the inventory to its present location and condition.

The net realizable value of inventories is determined as the estimated selling price less the estimated costs necessary to complete and sell the inventory.

The parent company applies the perpetual inventory method, and inventory values are determined as follows:

- Work-in-progress and finished coal inventories at the end of the period are valued in accordance with the unified method applied across the Vietnam National Coal - Mineral Industries Holding Corporation Limited, as stipulated in Decision No. 2917/QĐ-HĐQT dated December 27, 2006, issued by the Board of Directors of the Vietnam National Coal - Mineral Industries Holding Corporation Limited, on the accounting regime applied within the Holding Corporation.
- Raw materials, tools, supplies, and goods are valued using the specific identification method.

Provision for inventory write-downs is made for materials and goods with a cost higher than their net realizable value, in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standard No. 02 "Inventories" and Circular No. 48/2019/TT-BTC dated August 8, 2019, issued by the Ministry of Finance, guiding the recognition and use of provisions for inventory write-downs, financial investment losses, bad debts, and warranty obligations for products, goods, and construction works at enterprises.

4. Principles for the recognition of fixed assets, depreciation of fixed assets, and investment properties:

Fixed assets are recorded at cost and accumulated depreciation.

The cost of fixed assets includes the purchase price and any directly attributable costs necessary to bring the fixed assets into their operational state. Expenditures for acquisition, upgrades, renovations, and construction of fixed assets are capitalized and added to the cost of the fixed assets. Certain fixed assets are recognized at revalued amounts at the time of equitization. Maintenance and repair expenditures are charged to the income statement during the period they are incurred. When fixed assets are sold or disposed of, their cost and accumulated depreciation are derecognized, and any resulting gain or loss from the disposal is recognized in the income statement.

Depreciation of fixed assets is calculated using the straight-line method for all assets, based on rates determined to allocate the cost of the assets over their estimated useful lives. This is in accordance with the regulations outlined in Decision No. 45/2013/QĐ-BTC dated April 25, 2013, issued by the Ministry of Finance on the management, use, and depreciation of fixed assets.

5. Accounting principles for prepaid expenses:

Prepaid expenses include tools and instruments, land clearance costs, major repairs of fixed assets, and other expenses. Prepaid expenses are allocated gradually to production and business costs over a reasonable period starting from when they are incurred.

6. Accounting principles for receivables:

Receivables are presented in the parent company's financial statements at their carrying amounts, which include trade receivables from the parent company's customers and other receivables, plus the provision for doubtful debts.

The provision for doubtful debts reflects the estimated loss in value due to uncollectible receivables, arising from outstanding receivable balances as of the financial year-end.

7. Recognition and Capitalization of Borrowing Costs:

Borrowing costs include interest expenses and other costs incurred during the loan arrangement process, directly related to the construction investment or production of uncompleted assets shall be accounted into the value of such assets (capitalized) when the conditions prescribed in the borrowing cost standard are fully met. Borrowing costs shall be capitalized when it is highly probable that enterprises can get future economic benefits from the use of such assets and the costs can be reliably determined. The capitalization of borrowing costs shall terminate when the major activities necessary to prepare the uncompleted asset for its intended use are completed. Borrowing costs arising afterward shall be recognized as in-period production and business costs.

8. Recognition of Accrued Expenses:

Accrued expenses include the value of costs that have been recognized as in-period production and business costs but have not yet been paid as of the end of the financial year. This ensures that when actual expenses occur, they do not cause significant fluctuations in production and business costs, while maintaining the matching principle between revenues and expenses. At the time of payment, the accountant will make adjustments by either adding or reducing the expenses based on the difference from the previously accrued amount (if any). The accrued expense at the end of the period is interest expenses.

9. Principles and Methods for Recognizing Provisions for Liabilities:

The recognition of provisions for liabilities is made when the following conditions are met:

- Enterprise has a present obligation (legal obligation or constructive obligation) as a result of a past event;
- It is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; and
- A reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

Provisions for liabilities shall be set up at the time of preparing the financial statements. If the provision required for the current period is greater than the provision established in the previous period that has not been fully utilized, the difference is recognized as an expense in the current period's production and business costs. Conversely, if the provision required for the current period is less than the provision established in the previous period that has not been fully utilized, the difference must be reversed and recognized as a reduction in production and business costs in the current period.

The company's provisions for liabilities include: provisions for document usage fees and mining license fees to be paid to the government based on the quantity of minerals extracted during the year.

10. Principles of Recognizing Equity:

The business capital presented in the parent company's interim consolidated financial statements includes both the owner's equity contributions and the self-generated capital from annual profits.

11. Revenue Recognition Principles and Methods:

Revenue from sales is recognized when the majority of the risks and benefits associated with ownership of the goods have been transferred to the buyer, and the goods have been delivered and accepted by the customer.

Revenue from construction contracts is recognized in proportion to the work completed and confirmed by the customer during the period, when the parent company ensures the realization of benefits from the construction contract and that the costs to complete the portion of completed work at the reporting date of the interim consolidated financial statements can be reliably estimated.

Revenue from service provision is recognized when the majority of the risks and benefits have been transferred to the customer, the service has been provided, and is accepted by the customer.

Finance income includes revenue arising from interest on deposits, interest on loans, foreign exchange gains, and other finance-related income. Interest on deposits and loans is recognized on an accrual basis, based on the outstanding balances of deposits and the applicable interest rates.

Interest from investments is recognized when the parent company has the right to receive the interest.

12. Accounting Principles for Financial Expenses:

The parent company's financial expenses include interest expenses on borrowings that are not capitalized in accordance with regulations, as well as other expenses incurred during the financial year. Among these, interest expense refers to the interest payable on both short-term and long-term borrowings of the parent company.

13. Principles and methods of recognizing current corporate income tax (CIT) expense and deferred CIT expense:

Current corporate income tax expenses are determined based on taxable income and the applicable corporate income tax rate for the current year (20%).

Other taxes are determined in accordance with the current regulations of Vietnam.

14. Principles and methods for preparing financial statements:

The elimination method for intra-group transactions.
